

Poiana Winery is located near Ulmu village, in the heart of a nature reserve called Codri. This is a beautiful place, on a hillside meadow leading to a lake and surrounded by elm forests.

The story of Poiana Winery begins in 2003, when – the first vine cuttings were planted. Also then – the first fruits gave birth to the Ulmu range.

Being equipped with modern wine production technologies, based only on high quality standards and having a unique restaurant with an impressive panorama and more than that – a location that promotes local products and Moldovan traditions – in 2017, Poiana Winery opens its doors for the long-awaited guests.

You are invited to enjoy a wine tasting on the terrace while gazing over the stunning scenery.

Location: Ulmu village/Ialoveni district (36 km away from Chisinau, about 45 min drive).
